Announcements

JUNE WEDDING WILL UNITE TWO PROMINENT FAMILIES

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Foster, of the city, have issued invitations for the marriage of their only daughter, Roberta Thompson, to Mr. Harry Alexander Walker, of the city, to take place on Wednesday, June 16, at 5 o'clock, at the First Congregational church.

Miss Thompson is the daughter of Capt. James N. Thompson, of this city. Although quite young, she is well educated and has a host of friends who are interested in her approaching marriage.

Mr. Walker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker, of the city. He is engaged in the insurance business in Port Arthur, Tex., where the young couple will make their home.

Mrs. Thompson will be her daughter's maid of honor, while Miss Jane Foster and Miss Helen Bennett, of the city, will be bridesmaids.

Master Edward Russell Blair, Jr., will be the ring bearer, and Mr. James Warren, of the city, will be the best man. Mr. John Walker, Arthur H. Walker, Jr., and George S. Walker, of the city, will be the groomsmen.

Unique Affair to Honor Son.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Hill Bond, for a unique affair to be given on Sunday, June 13, when they will entertain with a spring harvest dance complimentary to their son, who has returned from the Southern military academy.

The young people who will be numbered among the guests of the evening will wear suitable costumes for the gathering of the spring peach crop and the early garden produce. The young men will wear overalls with big sun-dog hats and the girls will be lovely in gingham frocks and sunbonnets.

In Honor of Son.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Beatty will receive informally at their home, 100 East Third, on Sunday, June 13, in honor of their son, Ben, who is a graduate from Central high school.

Will Entertain Visitors.

Friends of two popular young debutantes, Misses Gertrude Russell and Virginia Moore, are looking forward with much pleasure to the arrival of their guests, the Misses Hambo, of Knoxville. Miss Jane Hambo will be the guest of Miss Russell and her sister, Miss Mary Hambo, will be entertained by Miss Moore. They will be participants in the social affairs which have been planned for some of the charming brides-elect and will also be complimented with several lovely bouquets, dates for which will be set after their arrival.

Weddings

Cockroft-Peefer.

A marriage that was quietly solemnized, owing to a recent bereavement in the family, was that of Miss Thelma Cockroft, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cockroft, of the city, to Mr. John H. Peefer, of Booneville. The wedding having taken place on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, 455 Edith avenue, the Rev. D. A. Ellis, pastor of the Baptist church officiating in the presence of two immediate families.

The pretty bride wore a stylish suit of blue tulle with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Signal Mountain, Tenn., where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will make their home in Booneville.

Simpson-Stone.

The marriage of Miss Orla May Stone to Mr. Floyd Simpson, both of Bunton, Tenn., was beautifully solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist church in the presence of a large gathering. The Rev. J. M. Jenkins officiated, and the ceremony was beautifully decorated by friends of the bride.

Mrs. Homer Stone sang "I Love You Truly" before the entrance of the bride, and Miss Stephens played the wedding march.

Mr. Simpson is a veteran of the world war, having volunteered and entered the service on Feb. 9, 1918, and was overseas with Co. B, 27th regiment, U. S. engineers, till the signing of the armistice.

Miss Stone is the beautiful and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stone, of Bunton.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a visit to relatives in Mississippi. On their return they will make their home at Normal, Tenn.

Entertainments

MRS. ELLIS ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON FOR MISS BOYLE

Mrs. E. M. Ellis was the hostess at a most attractive luncheon on Friday afternoon at the country club, entertaining in special compliment to Miss Margaret Boyle, who is being honored with a series of delightful affairs preceding her marriage on June 16 to Mr. Edward Parkinson, of the city.

Covers were laid for 16 on a daintily appointed table, which had as a floral centerpiece a beautiful bride bouquet, while another gorgeous bouquet, with a touch of pink among the white lilies, were the lovely bride's place, which were marked by hand-painted cards suggesting the approaching wedding.

For the afternoon the charming honor guest, Miss Boyle, wore a lovely white dress with a white tulle train, having facings of geranium red satin with an embroidered sash that fit to match.

For Friday evening Messrs. John Austin and Dittus Abston have planned a dancing party at the Natchez Club, which will be held on Saturday night.

CLUBDOM

GIRLS CAMP AT HARDY

Under the auspices of the Young Women's club (Y. W. C. A.), the girls' camp, Mirmirre, at Hardy, Ark., will be open from June 28 until Sept. 1. The camp which was established several years ago with only one building has been increased to include several buildings with modern camping conveniences and provides an ideal place for a summer outing for girls in moderate circumstances.

There are ten well-furnished cottages, with screened sleeping quarters. Three canoes, tennis courts, a baseball diamond and arrangements for other outdoor sports, which contribute to a wholesome recreation.

A schedule of regular hours for study and recreation from the rising hour until the hour of retiring has been arranged as follows: 7:30 a.m., reveille, setting up, exercise and morning plunge; 8:30, breakfast; 9:30 to 11, hiking, letter writing; 11, swimming; 12:30, dinner; 2 to 3 p.m., rest hour; 3 to 5, baseball games, kiosk parties. Optional classes in Bible study, botany, woodcraft and geology will be given. At 6 o'clock, swimming; 8:30, supper; 9:30, boating, marshmallow roasts, tawacials, etc.; 10 p.m., taps.

The committee in charge of the camp this season includes: Mrs. James S. Patterson, chairman; Mrs. James B. Patterson, secretary; Mrs. Louise G. Patterson, treasurer; Mrs. Earl Harris, publicity; Mrs. John McCreary, Mrs. W. G. Somerville, Mrs. H. H. Somerville, Mrs. Bruggman, formerly in charge of the hostess house at Camp Shelby, will serve as head counselor, and Miss Mayhew, formerly daughter of Bishop Troy Beatty, will serve as swimming instructor.

The expense of the vacation spent at the camp has been announced by the committee in charge as follows: Round trip railroad fare, 15-day limit, $4.00; bed, three meals and all privileges of camp, $1 per day.

The registration booth is open from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily at the Young Women's club, 156 Madison avenue, where any information pertaining to the camp may be obtained. There are a few vacation trips which will be awarded free to girls who would not be able to take the others. This information may be also secured at the booth.

The girls who secure these free vacation trips will have all the privileges of the camp and only those in charge will know whether or not the vacation is at her own expense or not.

FIRST COMMENCEMENT AT OPEN-AIR SCHOOL

The first commencement at the open-air school was held on Thursday when diplomas were presented to two graduates. Miss Hilda Gaudin, who was the valedictorian, and Miss Nola Bledsoe, the salutatorian.
